QUOTES ABOUT 500 HOMERS

"I'm a statistics nut and I figure if you hit 20 homers a year for 20 years, you still fall 100 short of 500. If you hit 30 a year for 15 years, you're still 50 short. When you think about it like that, it's pretty amazing."

Reggie Jackson

"If he's (Schmidt) knocking on the door in his 15th full season, that's all you need to know. It means he has been productive almost every year. A man doesn't put up those numbers if he's an in-and-outer."

Willie Mays

"The guys who have attained this level withstood the test of time. Frankly I don't think we'll see many more 500 home run hitters."

Frank Robinson

"I don't know Mike Schmidt but I admire what he's accomplished. He's a heckuva hitter. I could see him hitting 600 homers if he hung on a few more seasons, but that's up to him. Only he knows how he feels."

Mickey Mantle

"Five hundred home runs will mean a great deal to me. I'll be awfully excited as I approach the figure. As a professional player, it's gonna be the pinnacle of my career."

Mike Schmidt

PHILLIES HISTORY

The first game in National League history was played in Philadelphia in 1876, the Philadelphia Athletics facing Boston on April 22 at 25th and Jefferson Streets. The Philadelphia entry, however, didn't last the season and so the Quaker City was without representation in the National League until 1883. Alfred J. Reach purchased the Worcester, Mass., club (Brown Stockings) and moved it to Philadelphia, adopting "Phillies" was the official team name, a takeoff on Philadelphia or Philly.

The name "Phillies" is the oldest team name in the league.

The Phillies' initial game as a 4-3 loss to the Providence Grays, before 1,000 at Recreation Park, 23rd Street and Ridge Pike. Bob Ferguson managed the Phils in that first game, May 1, 1883.

In 1887, The Phillies moved into a new "magnificent park" at Broad and Huntingdon Streets, which was later to become known as Baker Bowl (capacity 15,000). An estimated 20,000 jammed the park for the game on April 30 and saw the Phillies maul the New York Giants, 19-10.

One of baseball's biggest disasters struck the Phillies in 1903. Twelve people were killed and 232 injured when the left field bleachers collapsed after fans had climbed to the top row to get a better view of a near-by fire.

The Phillies' owner in 1910, Horace Fogel, started a personal campaign with the press to change the name of his club. "The name Phillies is too trite and the Quakers (as they were sometimes called) stands for peaceful people who will dodge a fight. We're not going to fight. Why don't you fellas call the club the 'Live Wires'," Fogel pleaded with the press. His efforts went for naught.

Baker Bowl, which had a short-field line (280 feet) and a rather deep left field (341) became the site of the World Series in 1915 as the Phillies won their first league title. The Boston Red Sox, however, took the World Series, four games to one.

In 1927, the Baker Bowl wooden bleachers again gave way, and the Phillies, through the graces of Philadelphia Athletics' owner John Shibe, were invited to play at Shibe Park until the necessary repairs could be made. "I remember our first game in Shibe Park very well," recalled the late owner Gerry Nugent. "It was the day Lindberg arrived in Paris."

Back to Baker Bowl went the Phillies, who played the first Sunday baseball game in Philadelphia there in 1934, losing to Brooklyn, 8-7.

The Phillies moved permanently to Shibe Park on July 4, 1938 after 51 years at Baker Bowl. The Phils lost the first game to Boston, 10-8, but came back behind the pitching of Claude Passeau to win the nightcap, 10-2.

Late in 1943, the Phillies were sold to R.R.M. Carpenter, Jr. Between Reach and Carpenter, nine others owned the club. To stimulate interest in the club, a contest was conducted to find a nickname for the Phillies. For 1944 and 1945, the club was known as the Blue Jays, although they still maintained the official "Phillies" title.

Seven years after Carpenter took over, the Phillies rose to become National League champions, for the second time in club history. Again, the World Series crown eluded them, as the New York Yankees swept the series, 4-0.

Bob Carpenter, after 29 years as the club president, moved up to chairman of the Board on Nov. 22, 1972. He was succeeded as president by his son, Ruly Carpenter.

After 32 1/2 seasons in Shibe Park-Connie Mack Stadium in which the Phillies won 1,205 and lost 1,340 the club moved into the spectacular new Veterans Stadium for the 1971 season.

The Philadelphia Athletics won the first game at Shibe Park, 8-1 over Boston on April 12, 1909. The Phillies won the park's finale, 2-1 over Montreal on Oct. 1, 1970 a 10-inning battle.

In the first game played in the 56,731 seat Veterans Stadium, the Phillies defeated the Montreal Expos 4-1 on April 10, 1971.

By the end of the decade the Phillies had developed into one of baseball's top franchises, winning division titles in three successive years, 1976, 1977 and 1978.

Then finally on Tuesday, October 21, 1980 at 11:29 p.m. the Phillies achieved the ultimate - they became World Champions for the first time in their 98-year history. The Phils downed the Kansas City Royals, four games to two, and Mike Schmidt was named the Series MVP.

The Carpenter era with the Phillies came to an end on Oct. 29, 1981, when they sold the club to a group headed by Bill Giles.

For the second time in four years the Phillies captured the National League Pennant in 1983 and played for the World Championship. However, history did not repeat as the Phils lost the series to the Baltimore Orioles four games to one.

PHILADELPHIA HALL OF FAME

In 1978 the Phillies established the Philadelphia Baseball Hall of Fame, an area of the 200 level concourse behind home plate, where former Phillies and ex-Philadelphia Athletics are honored.

Each year members of the area media select six finalists from which the fans elect one player from each team to be inducted.

Players must have five or more years of service to be eligible. Managers and coaches need four years. Candidates must be retired for three years before they become eligible.

DID YOU KNOW?

The largest trade in Phillies history involved eight players. There were two eight player deals involving the Phils:

On October 7, 1969, Richie Allen, Cookie Rojas and Jerry Johnson were traded to St. Louis for Curt Flood, Tim McCarver, Joe Hoerner and Byron Browne. Flood refused to report and the Cardinals sent Willie Montanez and Bob Browning in his place.

On February 23, 1979, the Phillies traded Barry Foote, Ted Sizemore, Jerry Martin, Dick Botelho and Henry Mack to the Cubs for Manny Trillo, Greg Gross and Dave Rader.

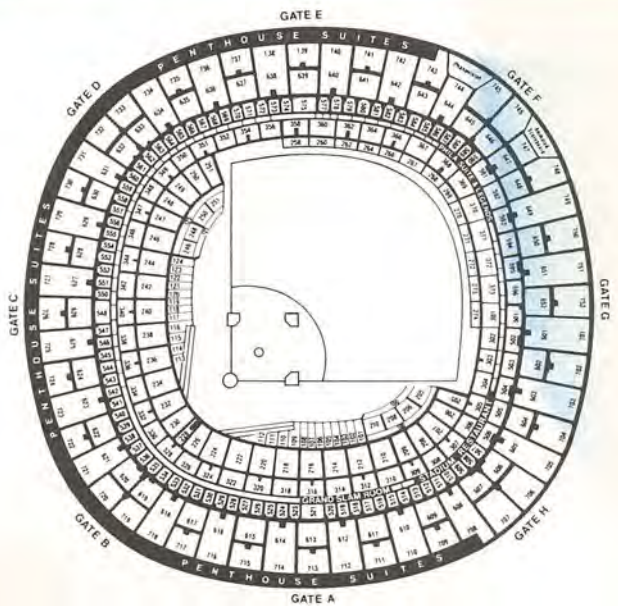
A system of 79 color television monitors are mounted in the 300 and 400 levels which enables fans in those sections whose view is obstructed to see the action on the board.

Dave Abramson is the director of a seven-person Phanavision crew which includes three cameramen. Two of the cameras are in fixed positions, one at the end of each dugout, while the third roves throughout the stadium during games.

Phanavision was manufactured by Matsushita Communication Industrial Co.



RULES OF INTEREST

CURFEW: All night games must be called at 1:00 A.M. (local time). If an inning is started prior to 1:00 A.M. (local time), it can be completed. A game called at the end of a complete inning with the score tied after nine innings is a suspended game.

DOCTORED BAT: If a filled or "doctored" bat is used, the player is to be called out and ejected from the game and is subject to additional penalties. Any balls hit by an illegal bat do not count. If the umpire sees the illegal bat before it is used, he issues a warning, but there is no penalty.

GAME WINNING RBI: The RBI which gives a club the lead it never relinquishes.

NIGHT GAME: Any game scheduled to start after 6 P.M. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at 6 P.M. and is delayed for any reason it will be considered a day game. If a game is scheduled to start at 6:01 P.M. it will be considered a night game. Twi-night double-headers shall be considered two night games.

PINCH HITTERS: A player shall be considered a pinch hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and only on his first time at bat which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around and a pinch hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared, he will not be considered a pinch hitter during that second time up.

ROSTER LIMITS: 40 until opening day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it again becomes 40 (maximum).

SUSPENDED GAME RULE: For the purpose of this rule, all performances in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on the original date of the game.

A game terminated by curfew or by a prearranged time limit is a suspended game if it has progressed to be an official game (4 1/2 or 5 innings).

A game terminated by light failure or malfunction of mechanical field device under control of the home club is a suspended game anytime after it begins.

Rule 4.11 (d) . . . A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminates play; EXCEPTION: If the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a suspended game in each of the following situations:

(1) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score and the home team has not scored. (2) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension immediately preceding the next scheduled, single game between the two clubs at the same site.

Any legal game called due to weather with the score tied is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

WAIVER AND DRAFT PRICES: The waiver price is $20,000 and the Major League Draft price is $50,000.

YEARS OF SERVICE: 172 days constitute a full major league year of service.

AMATEUR DRAFT

FREE AGENT DRAFT SUMMARY: Major League and National Association clubs meet twice a year for the purpose of drafting free agent player talent. Meetings are conducted by conference phone. Selection of a free agent entitles the club to exclusive right of negotiation with that player from the date of selection until 10 days prior to next draft. There are two phases of each draft:

Regular Phase: Clubs choose in inverse order of major league standings, selecting free agents and previous draftees who had not signed contracts but had instead enrolled in four-year colleges and since had either completed his junior year or become 21 years of age. Each organization may select only one player for each of its major league, AAA or AA rosters, but is not limited to the number of picks for "A" level. Minor league clubs select in the same relative order as their parent clubs.

Secondary Phase: Selection of free agents who had been drafted previously but who had not signed contracts before the negotiation right expired (except those draftees who had enrolled in a four-year college and had since graduated or become 21 years of age now drafted in the regular phase). It is possible for a club to redraft a player whom it was unable to sign after the original selection, but only with the written consent of that player. The order of selection is by lot with the 26 major league clubs divided into two 13 team groups with the groups alternating having first selections in respective drafts.

QUALIFYING MARKS

BATTING CHAMPIONSHIP: Highest batting average and 502 or more plate appearances. However, if there is any player with fewer than the required number of plate appearances whose average would be the highest if he were charged with the required number of official at bats, then that player shall be awarded the championship.

PITCHING CHAMPIONSHIP: Lowest ERA and 162 or more innings pitched.

FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP: Highest fielding average and (a) catcher must have played in at least 81 games; (b) infielder or outfielder must have played in at least 108 games; and (c) pitcher must have 162 innings pitched.

ROOKIE: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit.

SAVE: Credit a pitcher with a save when:

(1) He is finishing pitcher in a game won by his club; (2) He is not the winning pitcher, and (3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:

(a) He enters the game with a lead or no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or

(b) He enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or

(c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

No more than one save may be credited in each game.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAK: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances result in a walk, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAK: A consecutive-game playing streak shall extend if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

HOW TO FIGURE

BATTING AVERAGE: Divide at bats into hits.

ERA: Multiply earned runs by nine and divide the total by innings pitched.

SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide total bases by the total times at bat (not including walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher or interference).

ON-BASE PERCENTAGE: Divide the on-base total (hits, walks, hit by pitcher, and interference) by total plate appearances (at bats, walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher and interference).

FIELDING AVERAGE: Divide the total putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

WINNING PERCENTAGE: Divide the number of games won by the total games played.

MAGIC NUMBER: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.
